PREVENTION NETWORK BRINGS
MILTON CREAGH
BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND TO CNY SCHOOLS

Syracuse, NY—Prevention Network announced today that Emmy-nominated motivational speaker Milton Creagh is scheduled to revisit Syracuse-area high schools March 26-30 for a week of student assemblies and parent gatherings. Mr. Creagh addressed students and parents in Central New York last October and was asked by school administrators to return this spring. Mr. Creagh, who is nationally known for making an impact with his “straight talk” about important challenges facing young people, parents and families, will speak during student assemblies at:

Christian Brothers Academy, Monday, March 26th
West Genesee High School, Monday, March 26th
Lafayette Junior and Senior High Schools, Tuesday, March 27th
Henninger High School, Tuesday, March 27th
Nottingham High School, Wednesday, March 28th
Southern Cayuga Middle and High Schools, Thursday, March 29th
Henninger High School, Friday, March 30th

In addition, Mr. Creagh is scheduled to make parent presentations, which are free and open to the public, at the following locations:

West Genesee High School, Monday, March 26th at 7:00pm
Nottingham High School, Wednesday, March 28th at 7:00pm
Skaneateles High School, Thursday, March 29th at 7:00pm

Mr. Creagh is the former host of the national PBS television series, “Parenting Works!” His television work dates back to the early 90’s, when he created and hosted the talk show “Atlanta Teen Talk,” on WPBA TV in Atlanta. Among his numerous credits, Mr. Creagh is known for his video-based training program, “Parent to Parent,” and the Covenant Award-winning docu-drama he wrote and hosted, “Masquerade: Unveiling Our Deadly Dance With Drugs and Alcohol.”
