PREVENTION NETWORK BRINGS YOUTH MOTIVATIONAL EXPERT TO SYRACUSE

Syracuse, NY—Prevention Network announced today that Emmy-nominated youth motivational speaker Milton Creagh is scheduled to visit Syracuse October 23rd-27th for a week’s worth of visits to area high schools and parent gatherings. Mr. Creagh, who is nationally known for making an impact with his “straight talk” about important challenges facing young people, parents and families, will address in-school student assemblies at Marcellus High School, C.W. Baker High School in Baldwinsville, Fayetteville-Manlius High School, Nottingham High School, Jamesville-Dewitt High School, and Skaneateles High School. He is also scheduled to make parent presentations entitled “Parenting is the Key,” which are free and open to the public, at these locations:

Marcellus High School, Monday, October 23rd at 7:00pm
Baldwinsville High School, Tuesday, October 24th at 7:00pm
Fayetteville-Manlius High School, Wednesday, October 25th at 7:00pm
Syracuse Oncenter, Thursday, October 26th at 6:00pm

Mr. Creagh is the former host of the national PBS television series, “Parenting Works!” His television work dates back to the early 90’s, when he created and hosted the Emmy-nominated teen talk show “Atlanta Teen Talk,” on WPBA TV in Atlanta. Among his numerous credits, Mr. Creagh is known for his video-based training program, “Parent to Parent,” and the Covenant Award winning docu-drama he wrote and hosted, “Masquerade: Unveiling Our Deadly Dance with Drugs and Alcohol.” He has been featured in magazine and media outlets as diverse as Fox News Network, CNN, and “Focus on the Family” magazine cover story among many others.
